On March 11, 2020, the Mayor declared a Public Health Emergency in the District of Columbia. Subsequently, on March 30, 2020, the Mayor issued a Stay at Home Order for the District of Columbia, which went into effect on April 1, 2020. On May 27, 2020, the Mayor issued Mayor’s Order 2020-067, which lifted the Stay at Home Order and allowed for the reopening of certain non-essential businesses starting on May 29, 2020. On June 19, 2020, the Mayor issued Mayor’s Order 2020-075, which provided guidance for further reopening of businesses during Phase Two. On March 17, 2021, the Mayor issued Mayor’s Order 2021-038, which extended the Public Health Emergency. All individuals are still required, if possible, to maintain a distance of at least six (6) feet from persons not in their household. In addition, indoor gatherings of more than ten (10) individuals continue to be prohibited in the District.

As such, in consideration of the health, safety, and welfare of the residents of the District of Columbia, and in consideration of the above Mayors' Orders, in lieu of an in-person public hearing to obtain community input on the proposed disposition of the Property, pursuant to D.C. Official Code §10-801, the hearing will be held online, and community input should be submitted in writing by June 4, 2021.
